Our "Hat" Pays Cash to Performers

MARCH 2025

6 CANNERY ROW

Cannery Row's New Orleans style Jazz/Blues Boogie and Cajun/ Zydeco with the talented Gary Comeau, Tim Hearsey & Chris "The Wrist" Nordquist prove there is no such thing as too much fun. It's guaranteed to be a chair rockin', foot tapping joyful night and like we always do, we ask everyone to please resist the urge to dance on the tables!

13 PORTER BYE PROJECT

When it comes to home grown talent, Joani is a North Vancouver favourite daughter. This engaging and energetic dynamo is a first call studio singer, a skilled band leader, guitarist and lead vocalist. When she teams up with master guitarist Tim Porter their show simply takes flight and delivers a wildly entertaining fun-filled night of music!

20 BLAKE HAVARD

This veteran singer-songwriter has attracted the attention and support of many other Vancouver recording artists and producers such as Tom Lavin, Jim Foster and Mike Fraser. If you're looking for an evening of music that blends Canadiana with a bit of blues then look no further! Blake Havard has the songs, the voice, the musicianship to deliver what you want to hear.

27 MARK CRISSINGER

It's the first Corner Stone appearance for touring bluesman Mark Crissinger. Blending traditional themes, clever lyrics, and modern arrangements, Mark's solo show features stellar guitar playing and soulful vocals. He has released six studio and four live albums, and been nominated for a Maple Blues Award. Reserve early for this one!

APRIL 2025

3 JEFF STANDFIELD

North Shore born and raised singer/songwriter Jeff Standfield returns to the Corner Stone to entertain us with his warm, fun and engaging performance. His voice has a beautiful natural tenor/ alto quality... think Paul Simon, Van Morrison and others whose songs he covers in his show. He has performed live and in the studio with Jim Byrnes and the Odds. Rumour has it that he's bringing a guest along too...

10 CECILE AND HER MUSICAL BROTHERS

Vocalist extraordinaire Cecile Larochelle once again brings a stellar trio of master musicians and singers to accompany her. Guitarist Tim Porter, bassist Billy Mendoza and drummer Daryl Burgess have joined forces with Cecile to present a captivating tableau of familiar melodies and delicious four part harmonies. Their show is a cavalcade of fun fun fun!

17 THE AL FOREMAN BAND

Ace piano player Al Foreman has been joyfully pleasing audiences for over fifty years, sharing his musical influences, inspirations and motivations from all styles and genres; and he usually brings along a few familiar faces to add to the show. Maybe an ace guitar player, sometimes a sax, it all depends on the musical stories Al will be sharing on that particular evening. I'd definitely mark my calendar for this one...

24 L J MOUNTENEY

Songstress LJ returns accompanied by Corner Stone favourites vocalist/bassist Linda Kidder and master guitarist Tim Porter. To say that LJ is a seasoned vocalist with a very versatile catalog is understating the growth her career path has been on this past couple of years performing with Tim and Linda in multiple venues around the province. Welcome back LJ!!
